We do hope that you are planning to join us for Felton's 130th Anniversary Celebration on Wednesday, October 30, 2019! The festive evening at the War Memorial's Green Room at 401 Van Ness Avenue will feature greetings from Mayor London Breed of San Francisco and awards to celebrity champions for their outstanding contributions and support of mental health and social services.

Felton's Inclusivity in Action Award will be presented to Snoop Dogg for his work with Snoop's Special Stars, a division of the Snoop Youth Football League that features sportsmanship and coaching for youth with disabilities.

Former executive director of San Francisco Suicide Prevention Eve R. Meyer is the recipient of Felton's Legacy of Love Award for her 30 years of dedication to saving lives.

Bridge Bank will receive the Community Bridge Builder Award for its investment and commitment to innovative organizations. And Oprah Winfrey was the recipient of the Kitty Felton Maverick Award for her international impact that has changed the conversations around mental health. Ms. Winfrey's award was presented privately and she will not be present at the celebration.

The keynote speaker for the evening is Jenēe Johnson, Program Innovation Leader at the San Francisco Department of Public Health, who is featured on this month's cover of Mindful magazine. The evening reception will begin with music from The World Famous Rick and Russ Show featuring C.J. Flash and a dance performance and Charleston lesson from Someday Sweethearts.

This Sunday at 4:30 am, KBLX Cares will feature Felton Institute's President and CEO Al Gilbert and Business Development Director Dr. Robin Ortiz. The show, hosted by popular radio star "Your Bay Baby" Sterling James, can be heard on KBLX (102.9 FM). Tune in to hear more about Felton's life transformative mental health and social services and the 130th celebration. Thanks again to KBLX for the opportunity to share Felton's mission!

Felton Institute has the longest-running history of continued service in the San Francisco Bay Area with more than 50 social work programs. Our agency serves thousands of low-income and under served children, families, and adults of all ages. The anniversary celebration is an opportunity to express appreciation to everyone who continues to make this possible and to look ahead to the next 130 years!

We look forward to having you join us! There are just a few tickets left. Tickets are available through our Eventbrite Event:
