

About Us

In collaboration with the City of Antioch, the Antioch Police Department, and local community-based organizations, the Angelo Quinto Community Response Team (AQCRT) provides a 24/7 community response to low level, non-life threatening 911 calls.

AQCRT supports the community by engaging the community. Fostering successful outcomes for those experiencing a mental health crisis, AQCRT empowers Antioch residents by supporting long-term prevention services and community conflict mediation.

Get In Touch

Contesa Tate
AQCRT Program Director

(415) 474-7310
infoAQCRT@felton.org
www.Felton.org

Felton East Bay Headquarters

1005 Atlantic Ave
Alameda, CA 94501

Resources To Help You

Crisis Help Line:
988 or 800-273-8255

Crisis Text Line:
Text "HOPE" to 20121

Angelo Quinto Community Response Team

24/7 community response to low level, non-life threatening 911 calls

Our Services

- ✓ Service linkage, intervention, and prevention services for those experiencing a mental health crisis.
- ✓ Community conflict mediation, support, and engagement.
- ✓ Crisis prevention trainings and community events.
- ✓ Resource distribution

The Angelo Quinto Community Response Team is a diverse group of people who bring their unique set of education, life experiences, and skills to the community and beyond.

| Contesa Tate, Program Director

Our team responds with a human focus. How do I help this person who's part of my community? I want to be an aid and a support in a way that I wish I had for myself.

| Rayvon Williamson, Lead Case Manager

The team is here to assist the community in any way possible. TOGETHER there is nothing we can't accomplish.

| Nicholas Jenkins, CRS

Program Components

- ✓ AQCRT is comprised of trained staff who provide mental health support and conflict resolution.
- ✓ The team utilizes motivational interviewing and de-escalation techniques.
- ✓ Support with crisis safety planning to prevent/ reduce future crisis
- ✓ Provide service linkages to ongoing mental health and medical services
- ✓ Aid in housing placement options for unhoused community members

And More...

How Can I Receive Help from AQCRT?

Community members experiencing a mental health emergency or community concern are encouraged to call 911 and dispatch will coordinate our team to arrive to your aid.

About Felton Institute

Felton Institute responds to human needs with innovative, cutting-edge social services and treatment that combine evidence-based practices and the best social science research with cultural sensitivity, a deep respect for the consumer and a commitment to social justice and supportive communities. We place special emphasis on the needs of low-income families, children, the elderly, and people living with disabilities.

Our Mission

Rooted in equity, Felton Institute transforms quality of life and promotes social justice to accelerate community led change.

Our Vision

Drive positive and sustainable community led change where all have equitable access to innovative, high-quality, evidence-informed services.

